Sir:

The following information is being brought to the Examiner's attention.

I. LITIGATION ACTIVITY

A. Ethicon litigation

Applicant brings the following information and list of materials to the attention of the Examiner. On February 13, 1998, ArthroCare Corporation filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California against defendants Ethicon, Inc., Mitek Surgical Products, Inc., and Gynecare, Inc., alleging infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,697,909, 5,697,536, 5,697,281, and 5,697,882. The case was assigned Case No. C98-00609 WHO (the "Ethicon litigation"). The Ethicon litigation terminated in June 1999, with the defendants taking a license from ArthroCare under the patents-in-suit. The defendants paid ArthroCare a license fee and have paid ongoing royalties on sales in the United States of certain arthroscopy and gynecology products covered by these patents.

After the Ethicon litigation terminated, Applicant was apprised by a third party of section 2001.06(c) of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure ("MPEP") with respect to the prosecution of applications for patents other than those at issue in the Ethicon litigation and that were pending before the Ethicon litigation was commenced, namely, U.S. Application Nos. 08/807,111 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,891,095), 08/766,382 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,888,198), and 08/760,768 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,766,153).

Although not required to do so, Applicant did bring the Ethicon litigation to the attention of Examiner Mendez during the prosecution of at least U.S. Application Nos. 08/807,111 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,891,095), 08/766,382 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,888,198), and 08/795,686 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,871,469), during a telephone conference relating to those applications. Applicant also submitted the prior art that was principally relied on by the defendants in the Ethicon litigation to Examiner Mendez during the prosecution of U.S. Application Nos. 08/807,111 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,891,095), 08/766,382 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,888,198), and 08/795,686 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,871,469). Indeed, Applicant withdrew one of those pending applications, namely, U.S. Application No. 08/807,111 (now U.S. Patent No. 5,891,095), from allowance to provide Examiner Mendez with the opportunity to consider those references.

B. Smith & Nephew litigation

On July 25, 2001, ArthroCare Corporation commenced an action in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware against Smith & Nephew, Inc. (“Smith & Nephew”) for infringement of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,697,536 (“the ‘536 Patent”), 5,697,882 (“the ‘882 Patent”) and 6,224,592 (“the ‘592 Patent”). That action was assigned Civil Action No. 01-504-SLR (the “Smith & Nephew litigation”). The Smith & Nephew litigation proceeded to trial commencing on April 30, 2003. On May 12, 2003, the jury returned a verdict in favor of ArthroCare on infringement and validity issues with respect to all three patents. A copy of the jury’s verdict, dated May 12, 2003, is enclosed. Thereafter, on June 20, 2003, the Court entered judgment on the jury’s verdict. A copy of the judgment is enclosed.

A number of post trial motions were filed on the issues of infringement, invalidity, and inequitable conduct. In particular, Smith & Nephew filed a motion for judgment as a matter of law; a motion for a new trial; a cross motion to strike ArthroCare’s motion for entry of judgment of no inequitable conduct and a motion to modify the protective order. ArthroCare filed a motion for entry of judgment of no inequitable conduct and a motion for a permanent injunction.

On March 10, 2004 the Court ruled in favor of ArthroCare on all post trial motions. The Court issued a 90 page memorandum opinion: 1.) denying Smith & Nephew’s motion for judgment as a matter of law; 2.) denying Smith & Nephew’s motion for a new trial; 3.) granting ArthroCare’s motion for entry of judgment of no inequitable conduct; 4.) denying Smith & Nephew’s cross motion to strike ArthroCare’s motion for entry of judgment of no inequitable conduct; 5.) granting ArthroCare’s motion for a permanent injunction; and 6.) denying Smith & Nephew’s motion to modify the protective order. The Court also issued, on March 10, 2004, a memorandum opinion granting ArthroCare’s motion to dismiss Smith & Nephew’s antitrust counterclaims.

On June 9, 2004, the Court issued an order enjoining Smith and Nephew from directly infringing, inducing the infringement, and contributing to the infringement of the ‘536 Patent, the ‘882 Patent and the ‘592 Patent. The above mentioned memorandum opinions and corresponding orders are enclosed for your consideration¹.

Smith & Nephew has appealed the judgment and the injunction to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. The parties have completed briefing on the appeal.

¹ A portion of the memorandum opinion discussing the antitrust issues has been redacted to preserve information that is confidential

Numerous papers were filed with the Court during the Smith & Nephew litigation. The official docket kept by the clerk of the Delaware District Court, which is 43 pages long, is enclosed. The files holding the documents corresponding to the docket entries on the official docket span approximately eight linear feet of shelving space. Applicant is enclosing herewith the following documents from the Smith & Nephew litigation which show Smith & Nephew's and Applicant's primary arguments relating to issues of validity and enforceability:

³ Smith & Nephew's Reply Brief In Support Of Its Inequitable Conduct Case, dated July 24, 2003, was filed under seal by Smith & Nephew. If the Examiner requests a copy, Applicant will contact Smith & Nephew in an attempt to secure an agreement by which the brief can be disclosed.

Additional documents have been filed with the Court and are not enclosed because ArthroCare is under an obligation to maintain their confidentiality. Such documents include 1) Smith & Nephew's opening brief in support of its motion to stay injunction, dated March 12, 2004, 2) ArthroCare's Answering Brief in Opposition to Smith & Nephew's Motion to Stay Injunction, dated March 26, 2004, and 3) Smith & Nephew's Reply Brief in Support of its Motion to Stay Injunction, dated April 2, 2004. In addition, ArthroCare is providing the Examiner with "non-confidential" versions of the above-listed documents. Some of the documents, including the briefing to the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals and the Joint Appendix, have "Confidential" counterparts that have not been redacted.

In addition to the above-listed materials, there are numerous other papers that were filed with the Court or served in connection with the Smith & Nephew litigation that relate to invalidity or enforceability issues. These include, for example, the expert reports of Dr. S. Nahum Goldberg (ArthroCare's expert on infringement and validity), Dr. Kenneth Taylor (Smith & Nephew's expert on infringement and invalidity), Dr. Kim Manwaring (Smith & Nephew's expert on invalidity), Dr. Michael Choti (Smith & Nephew's expert on infringement and invalidity), Charles Van Horn

(ArthroCare's expert on patent prosecution issues), and Ronald Panitch (Smith & Nephew's expert on patent prosecution issues). Smith & Nephew also served a paper purportedly prepared by Dr. Brian Skromme of Arizona State University related to the validity of the '882 patent. Moreover, the parties filed motions for summary judgment on issues pertaining to the validity of the patents-in-suit. A. The '536 Patent

On December 23, 1999, an Ex Parte Reexamination Request ("Request") for the '536 Patent was filed with the PTO. Section II contains a rejection of claims 1-64 of the '536 Patent as anticipated under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) and obvious under 35 U.S.C. § 103 in light of certain references identified in an Information Disclosure Statement filed by Applicant on June 19, 2002.
